

LATINIZATION

Meaning: Latinization is the process of adopting or incorporating Latin language elements or culture into local languages or communities, often influencing their cultural identity.

1. The Latinization of local languages often leads to the preservation of cultural identity.
2. Scholars debate the impact of Latinization on indigenous communities throughout history.
3. In many regions, the process of Latinization was accompanied by significant social and political changes.
4. The Latinization of certain terms has enriched the vocabulary of modern languages.
5. Efforts to counteract the effects of Latinization have sparked movements to revive native dialects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/latinization>