LATITUDINAL

Meaning: Latitudinal refers to characteristics or variations related to different lines of latitude, particularly in relation to geographical or environmental factors.

1. The researchers analyzed the latitudinal variations in climate patterns across the globe.
2. Latitudinal differences in daylight exposure can significantly affect plant growth and development.
3. The study focused on the latitudinal distribution of different species of birds in North America.
4. Understanding latitudinal effects is crucial for predicting how ecosystems respond to climate change.
5. The map illustrated the latitudinal zones of vegetation found in the region.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/latitudinal