

LAUDABILITY

Meaning: Laudability refers to the quality of being worthy of praise or commendation.

1. The laudability of her efforts in the community was recognized with several awards.
2. His dedication to environmental sustainability is a testament to his laudability.
3. The organization's laudability was evident in its commitment to helping those in need.
4. She was praised for the laudability of her actions during the crisis.
5. In a world often focused on profit, their laudability for social justice stands out.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laudability>