

LAUDABLE

Meaning: Laudable: deserving praise and commendation for actions or qualities that are admirable.

1. Her dedication to volunteering in the community is truly laudable.
2. The scientist received praise for her laudable efforts in advancing renewable energy.
3. It is laudable to see so many young people advocating for environmental protection.
4. The organization launched a laudable initiative aimed at reducing homelessness in the city.
5. His commitment to ethical business practices is commendable and absolutely laudable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laudable>