

LAUDATIVE

Meaning: Laudative (adjective): expressing praise or commendation.

1. The speaker's laudative remarks about the author's work brought tears to her eyes.
2. In a laudative tone, the professor praised the students for their outstanding performance.
3. The film received laudative reviews from critics, highlighting its innovative storytelling.
4. Her laudative speech at the award ceremony left a lasting impression on the audience.
5. The article was filled with laudative comments about the charity's impact on the community.
6. The critics wrote laudative reviews that praised the actor's stunning performance.
7. In her speech, she offered laudative remarks about the charity's impactful work in the community.
8. The professor's laudative assessment of the student's thesis earned her a well-deserved scholarship.
9. His laudative tone reflected his genuine admiration for the artist's innovative approach to music.
10. The laudative letter from the mayor highlighted the volunteer group's contributions to local sustainability efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laudative>