

LAUDER

Meaning: To lauder means to praise or commend someone or something highly.

1. The community gathered to lauder the local hero's bravery during the disaster.
2. She decided to lauder the accomplishments of her team at the annual meeting.
3. Critics were quick to lauder the film for its stunning visuals and powerful performances.
4. In his speech, he took a moment to lauder the contributions of volunteers to the charity.
5. The awards ceremony was an opportunity to lauder those who had made significant impacts in the field.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lauder>