

LAUND

Meaning: Laund (noun): A place where laundry is washed and cleaned, typically a laundromat or laundry facility.

1. The laund was bustling with activity as people dropped off their clothes for cleaning.
2. After a long week, I finally had time to visit the laund and catch up on my laundry.
3. She decided to open a small laund in her neighborhood, offering eco-friendly services.
4. The laund's bright colors and cheerful atmosphere made it a pleasant place to do chores.
5. On weekends, the laund often hosts community events to bring locals together.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laund>