

LAUNDER

Meaning: Launder: to wash or clean (clothing) to remove dirt or stains, or to conceal the origins of illegally obtained money by processing it through legitimate transactions.

1. She decided to launder the delicate dress by hand to avoid any damage.
2. The detective was tasked with uncovering how the suspect attempted to launder the illicit money.
3. After a long week of camping, they needed to launder their clothes before returning home.
4. He was accused of trying to launder the proceeds from his illegal activities through various businesses.
5. To keep her white linens bright, she always used a special detergent when she laundered them.
6. She decided to launder her favorite sweater after spilling coffee on it.
7. The authorities arrested him for attempting to launder money through various shell companies.
8. It's important to launder new clothes before wearing them to remove any chemicals.
9. They plan to launder the bed linens every week to keep their home fresh and clean.
10. He was caught trying to launder the proceeds from his illegal activities through a fake charity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laundry>