

LAUNDRESS

Meaning: Laundress: a woman whose occupation is to wash and care for clothes and linens.

1. The wealthy family hired a laundress to maintain their extensive wardrobe.
2. After a long day of work, the laundress took pride in the crisp linens she had pressed.
3. She learned the trade from her mother, who was also a skilled laundress in their small town.
4. The laundress carefully treated each fabric according to its specific washing instructions.
5. In the elegant mansion, the laundress found solace in the rhythmic sound of the washing machine.
6. The wealthy family hired a laundress to keep their clothes impeccably clean.
7. After years of experience, the laundress had mastered the art of removing even the toughest stains.
8. She worked tirelessly, ensuring that every piece of clothing was returned crisp and fresh.
9. The laundress was known in the neighborhood for her friendly demeanor and professional service.
10. In the grand estate, the laundress held a respected position, valued for her expertise in garment care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laundress>