

LAUREATE

Meaning: Laureate: a person who has been honored or awarded for outstanding achievement in a particular field, especially in the arts or sciences.

1. The poet was honored as a laureate for his contributions to contemporary literature.
2. Receiving the Nobel Prize made her a celebrated laureate in the field of medicine.
3. As a laureate of the prestigious award, he was invited to speak at the annual conference.
4. The film's director, a recent laureate of the Academy Awards, shared his creative process.
5. Her dedication to environmental activism earned her the title of youth laureate in her community.
6. The poet was celebrated as a laureate of contemporary literature.
7. After winning the Nobel Prize, she became a renowned laureate in her field.
8. The city honored the local artist by naming her a laureate of cultural achievement.
9. As a laureate, he was invited to speak at various prestigious events around the world.
10. Her status as a laureate brought attention to important social issues through her work.
11. The Nobel laureate delivered a powerful speech about the importance of climate action.
12. She was celebrated as a laureate for her groundbreaking research in genetics.
13. The poetry laureate read her latest work at the city's annual literary festival.
14. Being named a laureate is a prestigious honor that recognizes exceptional achievements.
15. The young scientist aspired to become a laureate in her field, inspired by her mentors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/laureate>