

LAVATORY

Meaning: LAVATORY: A room or compartment equipped with a toilet and washbasin, often found in public or private buildings, including airplanes.

1. The lavatory in the airplane was surprisingly spacious for such a confined space.
2. She always kept her lavatory stocked with fresh towels and scented soaps for guests.
3. After the long hike, they were relieved to find a clean lavatory at the rest stop.
4. He excused himself to the lavatory just before the meeting started.
5. The children's laughter echoed from the lavatory as they played with the faucet.
6. The lavatory on the train was surprisingly clean and well-stocked.
7. She excused herself to the lavatory to freshen up before the meeting.
8. In many cultures, the lavatory is considered a private space for reflection.
9. The hotel featured a spacious lavatory with modern fixtures and amenities.
10. He found it difficult to locate the lavatory amidst the maze of hallways.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lavatory>