

LAVE

Meaning: Lave (verb): to wash or bathe something, often in water.

1. She decided to lave her hands in the cool stream after the long hike.
2. The artist used watercolors to lave the canvas with soft hues.
3. After a long day at work, he liked to lave his worries away with a warm bath.
4. The gentle rain began to lave the parched earth, bringing life back to the garden.
5. As the tide receded, it began to lave the rocks along the shore, revealing hidden shells.
6. She decided to lave her hands in the cool stream after a long hike.
7. The artist would often lave her brushes in water before switching colors.
8. They watched the waves lave the shore, leaving behind shimmering shells.
9. To cleanse his spirit, he would often lave himself in the tranquil waters of the lake.
10. The gentle rain began to lave the dusty streets, bringing freshness to the air.
11. On hot days, we would lave our feet in the ocean to cool off.
12. He chose to lave his worries away with a long, soothing bath.
13. The gentle rain began to lave the dusty streets, bringing them back to life.
14. She decided to lave her hands in the cool, refreshing stream after a long hike.
15. The artist used watercolors to lave the canvas with soft, translucent hues.
16. As the tide rolled in, the waves began to lave the sandy shore gently.
17. He took a moment to lave his face in the fountain, feeling rejuvenated by the cool water.
18. Every spring, the rain would lave the earth, bringing life back to the parched landscape.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lave>