

LAVEMENT

Meaning: Lavement: a therapeutic procedure involving the injection of liquid into the rectum to relieve constipation or cleanse the bowel.

1. The doctor recommended a lavement to help alleviate the patient's constipation.
2. After discussing various treatment options, they decided that a gentle lavement would be most effective.
3. In certain holistic health practices, a lavement is often used to detoxify the body.
4. The nurse prepared the lavement procedure carefully to ensure the patient's comfort.
5. Following the lavement, the patient reported feeling significantly more at ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lavement>