

LAVOUR

Meaning: Lavour refers to the careful and diligent effort or labor involved in preparing a dish in culinary contexts.

1. Lavour is a term often used in culinary contexts to denote the act of laboring over a dish.
2. The skilled chef approached each task with a sense of lavour, ensuring every ingredient was meticulously prepared.
3. In traditional farming, lavour refers to the hard work involved in cultivating the land for a fruitful harvest.
4. They took pride in their lavour, knowing that each meal was crafted with care and dedication.
5. The artist's lavour was evident in the intricate details of the sculpture, showcasing hours of passionate work.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lavour>