

LAWGIVING

Meaning: Lawgiving is the process of creating and enacting laws to establish order and reflect societal values.

1. Lawgiving is often seen as a reflection of a society's values and priorities.
2. In ancient civilizations, lawgiving was a fundamental process for maintaining order and justice.
3. The philosopher admired the art of lawgiving, considering it essential for a thriving community.
4. Modern lawgiving must adapt to address the complexities of a rapidly changing world.
5. Through careful lawgiving, leaders can ensure that the needs of all citizens are met fairly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lawgiving>