

LAWMAKING

Meaning: Lawmaking is the process of creating and enacting laws through deliberation and approval by a governing body.

1. Lawmaking is a complex process that requires careful consideration of public needs and opinions.
2. The committee spent several months drafting the legislation before moving forward with the lawmaking process.
3. Effective lawmaking involves collaboration between various branches of government and input from citizens.
4. Many citizens feel disconnected from the lawmaking process and believe their voices are not heard.
5. In democratic societies, lawmaking is essential for ensuring justice and protecting individual rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lawmaking>