

LAY

Meaning: To place or put down in a horizontal position.

1. Please lay the books on the table before you leave.
2. She decided to lay her worries aside and enjoy the moment.
3. The artist chose to lay down vibrant colors on the canvas.
4. He will lay the foundation for the new building next week.
5. After a long day, she was ready to lay down and rest.
6. She decided to lay the blanket on the grass for their picnic.
7. The artist chose to lay her brushes down and step back to admire her work.
8. Before the storm hit, they needed to lay the shingles on the roof.
9. He watched the mother bird lay her eggs in the nest high up in the tree.
10. It's important to lay a solid foundation before building a house.
11. I decided to lay the blanket on the grass for a picnic.
12. She watched the sun lay low on the horizon as dusk approached.
13. The artist chose to lay the colors gently on the canvas for a softer effect.
14. He plans to lay the foundation for the new house next week.
15. Please lay your worries aside and enjoy the moment.
16. After a long day at work, he was ready to lay his head down and rest.
17. The artist chose to lay the colors in layers to create depth in her painting.
18. He always lays out his clothes the night before to save time in the morning.
19. The teacher asked the students to lay their books on the desk before leaving the classroom.
20. I will lay the foundation for the new project tomorrow.
21. She decided to lay the blanket on the grass for a picnic.
22. The artist chose to lay her paints out in a rainbow pattern.
23. He asked me to lay my cards on the table and be honest.

24. As the sun began to set, we could see shadows lay across the field.
25. The artist will lay down the first strokes of paint on the canvas.
26. He asked her to lay the dishes on the table before dinner.
27. After the storm, they found branches lay scattered across the yard.
28. She wanted to lay her worries aside and enjoy the moment.
29. Please lay the documents on my desk when you're finished.
30. She decided to lay the groundwork for her new project carefully.
31. The cat loves to lay in the sun during the warm afternoons.
32. He will lay the bricks for the new patio this weekend.
33. After a long day, I just want to lay down and relax.
34. The artist will lay the final touches on the painting tomorrow.
35. Please lay your phone on the table before the meeting starts.
36. He chose to lay his fears aside and speak his mind.
37. The contractor will lay the foundation for the new building next week.
38. She decided to lay her worries aside and focus on the present.
39. The artist chose to lay the canvas flat on the table for easier painting.
40. Do not lay your belongings on the floor; use the designated shelves instead.
41. He plans to lay the foundation for his new house next week.
42. After a long day, she was ready to lay down and relax for a while.
43. The teacher asked the students to lay their books on the desk.
44. Every night, he would lay his head on the pillow and reflect on the day.
45. They chose to lay the foundation of the house in the spring.
46. After the storm, the fallen branches lay scattered across the yard.