

LEADEN

Meaning: Leaden: heavy, dull, or oppressive in appearance or feeling, often associated with a gray color or a sense of burden.

1. The sky was a leaden gray, promising rain at any moment.
2. Her heart felt leaden with the weight of her unanswered questions.
3. He spoke in a leaden monotone that made it hard to stay awake.
4. The leaden atmosphere of the room reflected the tension between the two friends.
5. After the long meeting, I left with a leaden feeling of fatigue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaden>