

LEADY

Meaning: Leady (adjective): having a heavy, reflective quality or appearance, often resembling the texture or characteristics of lead.

1. The leady surface of the painting gave it a unique texture that caught the light beautifully.
2. She admired how the leady substance of the fountain was both heavy and reflective under the sun.
3. His leady voice filled the room, commanding attention and respect from everyone present.
4. The leady material used in the sculpture added a sense of permanence and gravitas to the installation.
5. As the leady fog rolled in, visibility decreased dramatically, creating an eerie atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leady>