

LEAF-FOOTED

Meaning: Leaf-footed refers to a type of insect, particularly a bug, characterized by flattened hind legs that resemble leaves.

1. The leaf-footed bug is easily recognizable due to its distinctive flattened hind legs.
2. In the garden, I spotted a leaf-footed insect resting on a sunflower, blending in perfectly with the petals.
3. Leaf-footed bugs are known to feed on a variety of plants, often causing damage to fruits and vegetables.
4. The vibrant colors of the leaf-footed species make them a fascinating subject for nature photographers.
5. While hiking, I was surprised to find a leaf-footed bug perched on a leaf, its unique shape capturing my attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaf-footed>