

LEAF-NOSED

Meaning: Leaf-nosed refers to a group of bats or frogs characterized by a prominent, leaf-like structure on their nose, which aids in echolocation or other functions.

1. The leaf-nosed bat is known for its distinctive nose leaf that helps enhance its echolocation abilities.
2. Researchers recently discovered a new species of leaf-nosed frog in the dense rainforest.
3. In the vibrant world of butterflies, the leaf-nosed variety stands out with its unique wing patterns.
4. The leaf-nosed monkey, with its elongated nose, has adapted perfectly to its arboreal lifestyle.
5. During our hike, we encountered a leaf-nosed lizard basking on a sunlit rock, showcasing its colorful scales.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaf-nosed>