

LEAFLET

Meaning: A leaflet is a small printed sheet of paper, often folded, used for advertising or providing information about a specific topic or event.

1. The local museum distributed a colorful leaflet to promote its upcoming exhibition.
2. She picked up a leaflet from the information desk detailing the city's tourist attractions.
3. The environmental group produced a leaflet highlighting the importance of recycling.
4. He was impressed by how informative the leaflet was about the new community center.
5. After reading the leaflet, she decided to enroll in the cooking class advertised inside.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaflet>