

LEAL

Meaning: Leal: loyal and faithful, especially in allegiance or duty.

1. He remained leal to his friends even in their darkest times.
2. The leal knight vowed to protect his kingdom until his last breath.
3. Her leal nature made her the most trusted confidante in the group.
4. In a world of uncertainty, his leal spirit brought comfort to many.
5. They admired her leal dedication to the cause, which inspired others to follow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leal>