

LEAN-TO

Meaning: A lean-to is a simple structure or shelter that is attached to a larger building or wall, typically with a sloping roof, used for storage or protection.

1. The old barn had a charming lean-to that provided shelter for the animals during storms.
2. We decided to build a lean-to against the back of the house for additional storage space.
3. As we hiked through the woods, we stumbled upon a rustic lean-to made of fallen branches.
4. The lean-to served as a perfect spot for our outdoor gatherings and summer barbecues.
5. After the storm, we found the lean-to still standing, a testament to its sturdy construction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lean-to>