

LEAP

Meaning: LEAP (verb): To jump or spring a long distance or to take a bold step towards a new opportunity or venture.

1. She took a leap of faith and started her own business.
2. The cat made a graceful leap from the table to the floor.
3. With a powerful leap, the athlete cleared the high jump bar.
4. He felt a surge of excitement as he prepared to leap into the unknown.
5. The children laughed as they watched their puppy take a leap into the puddle.
6. She took a leap of faith and decided to start her own business.
7. The rabbit made a sudden leap to escape the pursuing fox.
8. With a single leap, he cleared the wide gap between the two cliffs.
9. After months of preparation, she was ready to take the leap into the unknown.
10. The children watched in awe as the gymnast executed a perfect leap during the competition.
11. The cat made a graceful leap from the fence to the ground.
12. After months of practice, he was finally ready to take the leap into competitive swimming.
13. The children watched in awe as the dolphin made a spectacular leap out of the water.
14. With one final leap, she cleared the last hurdle and crossed the finish line.
15. He made a daring leap from the edge of the cliff into the crystal-clear water below.
16. With a sudden leap of faith, she decided to pursue her dream of becoming an artist.
17. The athlete's incredible leap earned him a gold medal at the championship.
18. As the children watched the frog make its impressive leap, they burst into laughter.
19. In just a few short years, the company took a leap forward in technology and innovation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leap>