LEASEHOLDER

Meaning: A leaseholder is an individual or entity that holds the lease of a property, granting them the right to use and occupy it for a specified period under agreed terms.

1. The leaseholder decided to renovate the property to increase its value.
2. As a leaseholder, she had the right to renew her contract after ten years.
3. The leaseholder must adhere to the terms outlined in the lease agreement.
4. Disputes between the freeholder and the leaseholder can often lead to legal challenges.
5. Being a leaseholder often comes with responsibilities for maintenance and repairs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaseholder