

LEASER

Meaning: LEASER (noun): A device that emits a concentrated beam of light, often used for cutting, measuring, or conducting experiments.

1. The artist used a laser to cut intricate designs into the wood.
2. In the laboratory, the researchers employed a laser to conduct precise experiments.
3. The technician focused the laser beam carefully to ensure accurate alignment.
4. For the presentation, she created a stunning visual effect using a laser projector.
5. He wore protective goggles while working with the high-powered laser in his workshop.
6. The artist used a laser to create intricate designs on the glass surface.
7. During the presentation, the engineer explained how the leaser improved efficiency in manufacturing.
8. She marveled at the precision of the leaser as it cut through tough materials effortlessly.
9. The leaser technology has revolutionized medical procedures by allowing for minimally invasive surgeries.
10. In his workshop, he demonstrated the capabilities of the new leaser that he had just purchased.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leaser>