

LEASH

Meaning: A leash is a strap or cord used to restrain and control an animal, typically a dog, during walks or outings.

1. The dog eagerly tugged at its leash, excited for a walk in the park.
2. She tightened the leash around her hand as the large dog spotted a squirrel.
3. He forgot to bring a leash, so they had to improvise with a length of rope.
4. The training session focused on teaching the puppy to walk calmly on a leash.
5. As they strolled through the neighborhood, the owner kept a close grip on the leash.
6. The dog tugged eagerly at its leash as we prepared for a walk.
7. She clipped the leash onto the collar before letting her puppy out into the yard.
8. It's important to have a sturdy leash when walking a large dog.
9. He accidentally dropped the leash, causing the excited puppy to sprint away.
10. The trainer recommended a shorter leash for better control during our sessions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leash>