

LEATHERHEAD

Meaning: Leatherhead refers to a town in Surrey, England, known for its scenic landscapes and local commerce, as well as a type of leather used in clothing that exhibits a shiny finish when wet.

1. Leatherhead is known for its picturesque countryside and charming local shops.
2. After the rain, the leatherhead on my jacket started to shine beautifully in the sunlight.
3. The local rugby team, the Leatherheads, has a passionate fan base that fills the stands every weekend.
4. She decided to decorate her living room with a leatherhead sofa to add a touch of elegance.
5. During our road trip, we stopped in Leatherhead for a delightful lunch at a quaint café.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leatherhead>