

LEATHERY

Meaning: LEATHERY: resembling leather in texture or appearance, often suggesting age, toughness, or sun exposure.

1. The old book had a leathery cover that hinted at its age and history.
2. Her skin, tanned and leathery from years spent in the sun, told stories of countless adventures.
3. He wore a pair of leathery gloves that were both stylish and practical for the cold weather.
4. The leathery texture of the steak made it less appealing than the tender cuts nearby.
5. As they walked through the forest, they stumbled upon a leathery old tree with gnarled branches.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leathery>