

LECTION

Meaning: Lection: a reading or selection of text, especially from scripture or literature, used for study or reflection.

1. The professor assigned a challenging lection from the ancient text for the students to analyze.
2. During the sermon, the pastor chose a lection that emphasized the importance of compassion.
3. The lection of the day included passages that inspired deep reflection among the congregation.
4. Each Sunday, the church selects a lection that aligns with the themes of the liturgical season.
5. In her studies, she found that the lection often contained profound truths relevant to modern life.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lection>