LECTURESHIP

Meaning: Lectureship: a position or role as a lecturer at a university or educational institution, typically involving teaching and academic responsibilities.

1. After completing her PhD, she was excited to apply for a lectureship at the university.
2. The new lectureship in environmental science attracted many qualified candidates.
3. He dedicated years to research, hoping it would lead to a permanent lectureship.
4. Securing a lectureship can be highly competitive, requiring both teaching experience and scholarly publications.
5. Her passion for education and mentorship made her an ideal candidate for the lectureship position.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lectureship