

LECTURN

Meaning: Lectern: a raised platform or stand used to hold notes or books for a speaker, typically used in presentations or speeches.

1. The professor stood behind the lectern, ready to present his research findings to the eager audience.
2. During the debate, the candidate frequently leaned on the lectern to emphasize key points in their argument.
3. She adjusted her notes on the lectern before stepping up to address the crowd at the conference.
4. The ornate lectern in the chapel was a gift from the local community, symbolizing their support for education.
5. As the speaker approached the lectern, the room fell silent in anticipation of the important announcement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lecturn>