

LEDGER

Meaning: A ledger is a book or digital record used to systematically record and organize financial transactions.

1. The accountant meticulously updated the ledger to reflect all recent transactions.
2. She referred to the ledger to settle discrepancies in the financial report.
3. Each entry in the ledger provided a detailed account of the company's expenses.
4. At the end of the fiscal year, the ledger revealed a surprising profit margin.
5. He discovered an error in the ledger that could have significant implications for the audit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ledger>