

LEDGMENT

Meaning: Ledgment: a formal record or account of transactions, achievements, or financial details.

1. The accountant prepared a detailed ledgment for the quarterly financial review.
2. In her journal, she made a ledgment of her personal achievements over the year.
3. The ledgment of the transaction was crucial for maintaining accurate records.
4. During the meeting, he presented a ledgment that highlighted the project's progress.
5. The ledgment served as a formal acknowledgment of their contributions to the charity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ledgment>