

LEEK

Meaning: Leek: a long, slender vegetable related to the onion, with a mild flavor, commonly used in cooking.

1. The chef added chopped leek to the soup for extra flavor.
2. She decided to make a quiche filled with leeks and cheese.
3. Leek is a versatile vegetable that can be used in a variety of dishes.
4. He harvested fresh leeks from his garden to prepare a hearty stew.
5. The farmer proudly displayed his vibrant leeks at the local market.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leek>