

LEG-OF-MUTTON

Meaning: Leg-of-mutton refers to the hind leg of a sheep, typically prepared and cooked as a large cut of meat.

1. The chef prepared a succulent leg-of-mutton, seasoned with herbs and roasted to perfection.
2. At the family gathering, the highlight of the feast was a beautifully glazed leg-of-mutton, drawing everyone's attention.
3. For the special occasion, she decided to serve leg-of-mutton alongside a rich, savory gravy and roasted vegetables.
4. The traditional recipe for leg-of-mutton was passed down through generations, each family adding their unique twist.
5. After hours of slow cooking, the leg-of-mutton was tender enough to fall off the bone, delighting all the guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leg-of-mutton>