

LEG

Meaning: A leg is a limb of the body that supports weight and enables movement, typically extending from the hip to the ankle.

1. She twisted her ankle while trying to jump over the fallen log with her left leg.
2. The athlete's leg strength was crucial for his performance in the marathon.
3. After the accident, he had to undergo surgery to repair the damage to his leg.
4. The chair was designed to provide support for people with limited leg mobility.
5. As the sun set, she stretched her legs on the warm sand, enjoying the peaceful evening.
6. The athlete injured his leg during the final match.
7. She crossed her legs and settled comfortably into her seat.
8. The table wobbled because one of its legs was uneven.
9. He noticed a tattoo on her leg that caught his attention.
10. After the long hike, his legs felt sore but fulfilled.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leg>