

LEGALIST

Meaning: A legalist is a person who adheres strictly to laws and regulations, often emphasizing their application in ethical and judicial contexts.

1. The legalist approach to ethics often emphasizes strict adherence to laws and regulations.
2. As a legalist, she believed that justice could only be achieved through the meticulous application of the law.
3. His legalist viewpoint made him skeptical of any reforms that seemed to undermine established statutes.
4. In a world where laws are often bent, a true legalist stands firm in their commitment to justice.
5. The legalist philosophy can sometimes be criticized for lacking compassion in its rigid interpretations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legalist>