

LEGATION

Meaning: Legation: a diplomatic mission or the body of diplomats representing a government in a foreign country.

1. The ambassador's legation was responsible for maintaining diplomatic relations between the two countries.
2. During his visit to Paris, he met with the legation to discuss trade agreements.
3. The legation was established to promote cultural exchange and strengthen bilateral ties.
4. She worked tirelessly at the legation, organizing events to foster goodwill among nations.
5. After months of negotiation, the legation successfully reached a new treaty agreement.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legation>