

LEGIFIC

Meaning: Legific (adjective): Pertaining to the creation or establishment of laws or legal frameworks that ensure compliance with regulations and prevent disputes.

1. The legal team worked tirelessly to ensure that the new policies were legific and adhered to all regulations.
2. During the meeting, the consultant emphasized the importance of legific agreements to prevent future disputes.
3. The document was thoroughly reviewed to confirm that all clauses were legific and enforceable in a court of law.
4. In her presentation, she highlighted the legific implications of the proposed changes to the contract.
5. As an expert in corporate law, he often advised startups on how to create legific structures for their businesses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legific>