

LEGISLATIVELY

Meaning: Legislatively refers to actions or processes that are carried out through the formal legislative system or by means of laws and statutes.

1. The new policy was enacted legislatively after months of debate.
2. The committee worked diligently to ensure that the reforms were established legislatively.
3. In some countries, rights are protected legislatively, providing a framework for justice.
4. The proposal was challenged both legislatively and in public opinion forums.
5. She emphasized the importance of addressing climate change legislatively to achieve lasting impacts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legislatively>