

LEGISLATORSHIP

Meaning: Legislators refer to the position or role of a legislator, particularly in the context of creating and enacting laws and policies within a governmental framework.

1. The concept of legislatorships plays a crucial role in shaping the laws and policies of a nation.
2. Understanding the responsibilities associated with legislatorships is essential for anyone aspiring to enter public office.
3. Her experience in legislatorships gave her valuable insights into the intricacies of governmental processes.
4. The effectiveness of legislatorships can often be measured by the quality of legislation produced during a term.
5. Debates surrounding the future of legislatorships reflect the changing dynamics of modern governance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legislators>