

LEGITIMATENESS

Meaning: Legitimateness refers to the quality of being legitimate, valid, or authorized, often in the context of laws, actions, or outcomes.

1. The court's ruling on the case enhanced the perceived legitimacy of the new law.
2. Critics questioned the legitimacy of the election results amid reports of irregularities.
3. In modern society, the legitimacy of online learning continues to be a topic of debate.
4. The company's success relied heavily on the legitimacy of its business practices.
5. She argued that the legitimacy of his claims should be carefully investigated before taking action.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legitimateness>