

LEGITIMATIZE

Meaning: To legitimize means to make something legitimate or acceptable, often by establishing it through formal approval or validation.

1. The government sought to legitimize the new policies through public referendum.
2. She argued that the changes in the curriculum would help to legitimize her approach to education.
3. To gain support, the activist aimed to legitimize the cause in the eyes of the broader community.
4. The organization worked tirelessly to legitimize the rights of marginalized groups.
5. Establishing a legal framework was essential to legitimize the new business practices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legitimize>