

LEGITIMIZE

Meaning: To legitimize means to make something acceptable, lawful, or recognized as valid, often by conforming to established standards or norms.

1. Efforts to legitimize the new policy were met with skepticism from the community.
2. The organization aimed to legitimize its operations by adhering to international standards.
3. He sought to legitimize his actions by presenting evidence of their necessity.
4. To gain public support, they worked to legitimize their claims through extensive research.
5. The court's ruling helped to legitimize the controversial law, bringing it into effect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/legitimize>