

LEGUMINOUS

Meaning: Leguminous refers to plants, particularly those in the family Fabaceae, that bear pods and often have the ability to fix nitrogen in the soil.

1. The leguminous plants in the garden are thriving this season.
2. Many leguminous crops, such as beans and lentils, enrich the soil with nitrogen.
3. Her diet is rich in leguminous foods, providing her with essential proteins.
4. The study focused on the leguminous species that are native to the region.
5. Farmers often rotate leguminous plants with cereals to improve soil health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/leguminous>