

LENDING

Meaning: Lending refers to the act of providing money or resources to someone with the expectation of repayment, often with interest.

1. Lending money to friends can sometimes strain relationships.
2. The bank is known for its low-interest lending options for first-time homebuyers.
3. She decided against lending her expensive camera to anyone she didn't trust.
4. Lending libraries provide communities with access to a wide range of books and resources.
5. The government introduced new policies to encourage lending during the economic downturn.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lending>