

LENITIVE

Meaning: Lenitive (adjective): having a soothing or calming effect.

1. The herbal tea had a lenitive effect, soothing her sore throat.
2. After the heated argument, a lenitive gesture helped to restore their friendship.
3. The doctor prescribed a lenitive balm to alleviate the patient's skin irritation.
4. In times of stress, he found that meditation had a lenitive quality that calmed his mind.
5. The lenitive music in the background created a peaceful atmosphere for the gathering.
6. His gentle words were lenitive, calming her anxious thoughts.
7. The doctor prescribed a lenitive ointment to alleviate the patient's skin irritation.
8. After a long day, a warm bath can be quite lenitive for tired muscles.
9. She found the quiet music to be lenitive, providing a peaceful backdrop for her meditation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lenitive>