

LENTANDO

Meaning: Lentando (verb) refers to the act of gradually slowing down or easing in pace or tempo.

1. Lentando the pace of the music, the conductor signaled for a more relaxed rhythm.
2. As the sun began to set, the hikers lentando their steps to enjoy the beautiful view.
3. The artist's brush moved lentando across the canvas, creating a serene landscape.
4. With each passing moment, the conversation became more lentando, filled with laughter and reflection.
5. The dancer executed the final movements lentando, allowing the audience to feel the emotion in her performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lentando>